I. Call to Order: President Melissa Broeckelman-Post (MBP) called the meeting to order at 3:02pm.

II. Approval of the Minutes of April 26, 2023: Approved as posted.

III. Opening Remarks & Announcements from the President
- Welcome back everyone to the new Academic Year
- Solon Simmons will serve as President Pro Tempore
- Delton Daigle will serve as Parliamentarian
- Karen Akerlof and Kerri LaCharite will serve as Sergeants at Arms
- Truman Deree will continue as Faculty Senate Clerk
- Visitor Bob Witeck has been appointed as our BOV Liaison and will attend meetings
- President Washington will address the Senate on November 15 & March 20
- Rector Blackman will address the Senate on August 30 & February 7
- Reception for Faculty Senators at the Mathy House will be on September 13 from 5:30-7:30pm
- The General Faculty Meeting will be held on February 21
- Reminder to new members on how Senate meetings work
  - Today we will elect committee representatives. Those who are elected please stay after the meeting and we will put you into breakout rooms to elect your committee chairs.
  - If you have something to say raise your hand. Senators are welcome to speak and I will call on others who have comments due to expertise, broader interest to faculty, guests, etc. You will be called in order hands were raised.
  - Everyone gets to speak once and can’t speak again on the same motion or amendment until everyone else who wishes to speak has spoken. Limit comments to no more than 2 minutes. Nobody may speak more than twice on the same motion or amendment.
  - Only Senators may vote. We will use voice votes unless too close to call, in which case we will use the reaction buttons in Zoom. For personnel-related matters/elections and any time a Senator requests a secret ballot we will move to a Qualtrics ballot. Only one Senator needs to request a secret ballot, and can do so for any reason.

IV. Special Orders

- Rector Blackman
  - Starting the school year with good news – we have passed the 40,000 enrollment mark. This makes us the largest university in Virginia and one of the largest in the country (somewhere in top 20), and we are growing in an overall environment of declining enrollment. This is a testament to the work of leadership and faculty.
  - Provost Ginsberg has accepted a position at Towson and there will be a nationwide search. These will be big shoes to fill. We may have an acting Provost for a year. We don’t want to rush this search.
  - We have been dealing with a budget shortfall. To put it in context, we have been dealing with this for the better part of four years and have managed to move money during this time and have been working with the Commonwealth and Governor. The state budget process is late this year, and we are hoping this will be addressed.
    - The shortfall is in the Education & General (E&G) category. The funding model at Mason hasn’t kept pace with the growth we have seen. This started 10-12 years ago. It is a trend across many institutions, but it is different for us. For most schools it is happening because the top line is going down, i.e., admissions are declining. This is a tough cycle to break. We are seeing universities like University of West Virginia experiencing challenges because of this. Their shortfall is about the same as ours, but they have experienced a 10% decline in enrollments. Similar issues at Marymount, leading to cutting programs.
    - We have no intention to start slashing and burning here. No intentions to reduce programs or do layoffs. We have talked to the Governor and General Assembly about “plussing us up” instead. I’m confident we will get there, maybe not in one bite, but we will get there.
  - Questions
    - Senator Tim Gibson (CHSS): Thank you for your and the Board’s work. It is reassuring to hear we are in a better position than our peers. Regarding the Provost search, faculty representation in the process is built into the handbook and I am glad to see there will be representation in this process. The handbook also provides for faculty to be involved at the finalist stage for senior positions. We want to ensure this will be the case.

- Good point, and we always try to take this into account. We have not put the search committee together yet but intend to take a flexible approach.

- Senator Lisa Billingham (CVPA): How can we as faculty or general citizens/Virginia taxpayers get training or assistance in how to speak with our representatives to help make Mason’s case for funding at the state level?
  - We have a lobbyist on staff, Paul Liberty, who works for the President’s office. It might be a good idea to invite him to a meeting.
  - There is also a Mason Day in Richmond every year. Faculty can get involved in that.
  - Advice from my own experience: tell the story. Representatives don’t often hear from people about what they’re doing in the classroom and in the community at large. It’s important to hear from students, faculty, and staff.

- Jack Fedak, Student Government Liaison: Regarding the Provost search, are there plans to involve students in that process?
  - It will take a couple of months to create the search committee, and the Provost is still here, so we want to acknowledge that. When he does fully assume his new role, we will name an interim and then put together a committee. For the Presidential search we had representation from the Board of Visitors, Board of Trustees, Faculty Senate, student body, Staff Senate. We are trying to make it as inclusive as possible. My assumption, without knowing the specifics of this search yet, is that we will follow a similar process.

- Jack Fedak, Student Government Liaison: You said there will not be cuts to staffing or programs. Will there be cuts elsewhere?
  - There is a difference between management and governance, and the role of the Board is governance. As far as I know from management there are no plans to cut anything, but instead to find money to bridge the gap. There was a small increase in tuition that we rescinded in Fall, which makes this a little more complicated. This is not a general budget shortfall, but specific to E&G lines. An example of something we can do – as a state agency we generate a lot of cash reserves and currently the Commonwealth manages these and pays us a paltry amount – about a 2% return. On the other hand, UVA manages their own cash reserves and can invest for a much higher return. We are asking for things like this for ourselves so we can make better decisions, rather than just asking for more money.

- Senator Sebahattin Demirkan (SBUS): I was surprised to find out that Mason was unranked from US News and World Reports as of this year, is there a plan to address this? What is going on?
  - The US News and World Reports rankings had some technical issues and I think new rankings will be coming out in the next month or so. In the ones I’ve seen we have improved our rankings. Law School is top 30, a number of programs are in the top 50, and last I saw we cracked the top 100. But there are some issues that a number of universities ran into this year. I wouldn’t read too much into this for now until the new rankings come out.

- Senate and University Committee elections
  - Election of members to Faculty Senate Standing Committees (Appendix A)
    - Senator Richard Craig, Nominations Committee Chair
      - Thank you to everyone who volunteered to be nominated, we had a large number of people who put their names down
    - MBP: Thank you to Richard and the Nominations Committee.

Reminder of procedures and rules
- Our bylaws say there must only be one nominee per open slot, even if multiple people are interested
- The Nominations Committee makes decisions about this based on various factors including the charge of the committee. Some require representatives from certain schools, certain ranks, Senator representatives etc.
- Existing committee members are shown on the slate in black font and new nominees to open positions are shown in red font.
MBP called for additional nominations for the Senate Standing Committees from the floor.
  • Additional for Nominations Committee: Bijan Jabbari (CEC), Iannis Bellos (S BUS), Laurie Miller (UN), Pierre Rodgers (CEHD). No electronic ballot needed as there were no existing nominees for these vacancies.
  • Vote by acclamation – slate approved.

Election of Members to University Standing Committees (Appendix B)
  • General committees made up of Senators, general faculty, administrative personnel and staff.
  • Each committee needs at least one Senator
  • MBP called for additional nominations for the University Standing Committees from the floor.
    • Additional for Effective Teaching Committee: Daphne King (CPH, nominated by Richard Craig)
    • Additional for Research Advisory Committee: John Dale (CHSS)
  • We will be postponing voting on the Reimagining Faculty Roles and Rewards committee until the next meeting as the call to the general faculty went out late
  • Question from Senator Alan Abramson (Schar): Does the Admissions Committee still exist?
    • Yes, but no new members were needed this year.

Election of Faculty Representatives to Committees (Appendix C)
  • Do not necessarily need to be Senators. These are faculty representatives to various administrative committees.
  • MBP called for additional nominations for Faculty Representatives from the floor.
    • Additional for Term Faculty Committee: Lisa Lister (CHSS)
    • Solon Simmons (Carter) removed name from Term Faculty Committee, leaving Lisa Lister as the only nominee.

• Uncontested University Committee and Faculty Representative slates were approved by acclamation
• Two nominees from the floor – Daphne King and John Dale – made statements about their interest in serving on the contested committees.
Colleagues of Gregory Robinson, Nirup Menon, and Divya Varier made remarks about those candidates’ interest and experience.

- An electronic ballot was shared for the Effective Teaching Committee and Research Advisory Committee vacancies.
  - Results
    - Effective Teaching Committee: Divya Varier (CEHD) – 26, Daphne King (CPH) – 23, Gregory Robinson (CVPA) – 21. Divya Varier and Daphne King elected.

V. Committee Reports

Senate Standing Committees

- Executive Committee (MBP)
  - The Executive Committee met over summer, mostly to talk about nominations and to review Gallup, COACHE, and Faculty Evaluation of Administrators (FEA) survey reports that you will be hearing more about soon.
  - We are meeting with the President’s Committee next month to talk about various issues for the upcoming year.
- Academic Policies (Dominique Banville) – no report
- Budget and Resources (Kumar Mehta) – no report
- Faculty Matters (Solon Simmons/Mohan Venigalla)
  - The Faculty Matters Committee developed a productive partnership with Gallup for the FEA survey this past year and looking forward to sharing the results soon.
- Nominations (Richard Craig) – no additional report
- Organization and Operations (Lisa Billingham/Charlotte Gill)
  - The Organization & Operations Committee met once after the final Senate meeting of last year and sent a committee charge change forward to the Executive Committee. We will be taking this back to O&O for more work before bringing it to the floor.
  - This year we will be revisiting other committee charges and cleaning up the standing rules.

Other Committees/Faculty Representatives

- Effective Teaching Committee (Tom Wood)
  - Reminder that last year the Senate passed a resolution asking each LAU to provide a report on their approach to using student evaluations of teaching and additional teaching evaluation methods. The Committee will be working on that this fall in collaboration with LAUs.

- Technology Policy Committee (Senator Delton Daigle)
  - The Committee will be writing a letter to the administration recommending that we do not pursue a national search for a new CIO and that Charlie Spann be appointed to the position. He has done an excellent job in the interim CIO role.
  - Question from MBP: Any updates on the new learning management system?
    - Not yet.

- Gift Acceptance Committee (Senator Bijan Jabbari)
  - The Committee met and approved a number of donations, information about which will be shared with Faculty Senate soon.
  - MBP: The Committee’s annual report (along with other committees) is also posted on the Senate website. If you chair a committee that has not yet submitted last year’s annual report, please do so.

VI. New Business: None.

- Announcements
  - Provost Ginsberg
    - Not able to attend today. MBP noted that soon-to-be interim Provost Ken Walsh is looking forward to getting to work.
  - EVP Dickenson
    - Many of us are heading to Richmond tomorrow for our 6-year plan presentation and hoping to get good news on the budget, so more updates to come. I echo Rector Blackman’s comments about the budget situation.
    - Update on VP of HR search – thank you to faculty who are on the search committee. A selection of candidates will be invited for interview over the next few weeks, then Ken Walsh and I will meet with finalists and bring a smaller pool forward to President Washington. If all goes well an offer will be made around November.

VIII. Remarks for the Good of the General Faculty

- Comments from Student Liaison Jack Fedak:
  - The Student Government requests to engage with the Naming Committee. There is a student-led move to rename Jackson Hall in Presidents Park but the Naming Committee seems not to have met for a while.
  o Student Government attends Mason Day in Richmond (mentioned by Rector Blackman) every year and would love to have faculty there – reach out to Jack Fedak, student liaison to the Faculty Senate, for more details.

  • Question from Senator Jamie Clark (CHSS)
    o We didn’t come to an agreement last year about the Conflict of Commitment policy in the Faculty Handbook (FH) but we just got the email about the policy change that references the FH – what is happening with that?
      ▪ MBP: The policy goes into effect regardless of the FH, the FH revision is just to integrate the new language. I think we held off on approving the FH changes because the policy itself wasn’t finalized yet.
      ▪ Elizabeth Woodley (University Ethics Officer): The policy should be referring to the existing FH language on Conflict of Interest – we were discussing revising that language to include details about the new Conflict of Commitment requirements, but it doesn’t conflict with the new policy. We will review and revise if needed.

IX.  Adjournment: The meeting was adjourned at 4:09pm. The spillover meeting scheduled for September 13 is cancelled.

X.  Post Meeting Election of Chairs of Faculty Senate Standing Committees

Respectfully submitted,
Charlotte Gill
