Grievance Committee

(Charge as revised and approved by the Faculty Senate – November 18, 2009)

In March 1998, the Faculty Senate approved the creation of the Grievance Committee, replacing the ad hoc University Grievance Committee, effective September 1998. The Charge was amended by a Faculty Senate vote on February 12, 2003 to enable the Committee to hear grievances from research faculty on matters of infringements of academic freedom, unfair or inappropriate conditions of employment, and any other due process issue. The charge was further elaborated in the Faculty Handbook adopted in 2009 concerning termination for cause and grievances against administrators.

Composition: Five members. Non-tenured faculty, chairs, and others serving in administrative capacities are ineligible to serve on this Committee. Members serve staggered two-year terms.

Charge: To investigate grievances of tenured, tenure-track, and term faculty:

A. which involve faculty matters from more than one local academic unit. Issues of investigation include alleged infringements of academic freedom, alleged unfair or inappropriate conditions of employment, alleged unfair or inappropriate termination for cause, and any other due process issue with the exclusion of retention, promotion and tenure appeals; (See also Faculty Handbook Section 2.93 Termination of Appointment for Tenured, Tenure-Track, and Term Faculty Members for Cause (pp. 47-49)).

B. which are not addressed by, or do not fall within the purview of the grievance committee of the pertinent local academic unit; (See also Faculty Handbook Section 2.10.1 University Policies (p. 48)) and

C. for local academic units that do not have grievance committees established, or when a grievance committee does not conform to the written procedures of the local academic unit. Other faculty appeals from local academic unit grievance committees are excluded. (See also Faculty Handbook Section 2.10.3 Faculty Work Assignments (p. 49) in case where Grievance is against a dean or director).

D. which involve administrators at or above the level of Dean or Director. (See also Faculty Handbook Sections 2.11.2 Grievances, 2.11.2.1 Policies Concerning Grievances, 2.11.2.2 Grievance Procedures (pp. 53-54)).

Mason Core Committee

(Charge as revised and approved by the Faculty Senate – April 1, 2009, composition of membership amended September 7, 2011. Multilingual Students Academic Support Committee

Approved by the Faculty Senate - December 7, 2016

In response to the 2015 Multilingual Student Task Force Report, the Faculty Senate established a new University Standing Committee, entitled Multilingual Academic Support..

Revisions approved by the Faculty Senate September 8, 2021.

Charge: The committee will be responsible for assisting in the implementation of efforts to support Mason's multilingual students' academic success. This will include identifying the needs and accomplishments of multilingual students, offering input on the types of direct student resources (e.g., classes and tutoring services) needed for students with varying English language (writing, speaking, listening, and reading) abilities, assessing the types of faculty development support needed to enhance the teaching of linguistically diverse students across the curriculum, and evaluating the types of administrative support needed to enable key programs to lead specialized curriculum and faculty development efforts. The committee will make recommendations about policies and resources based on this work to Faculty Senate and to any university leaders or committees whose initiatives impact the success of Mason's multilingual students.

Composition: The Committee will include one representative from each of the following areas: Writing Center, Stearns Center for Teaching and Learning, Writing Across the Curriculum Program, University Libraries, Composition/English Courses Faculty, Basic Communication Courses, INTO Mason, Center for Culture, Equity, and Empowerment, Undergraduate Education, Graduate Education, Academic Advising Office of Institutional Effectiveness and Planning, and Office of International Programs and Services. There will be one student representative, elected by the Student Senate. In addition, there will be three elected faculty representatives (including one faculty senator), from at least two separate colleges/schools, each serving staggered 2-year terms.

Recreation Advisory Committee

(Approved by the Faculty Senate – February 9, 2011)

Charge: To act in an advisory capacity in all matters pertaining to faculty and staff use of recreational facilities.

Membership: Three faculty members, three staff members, and three members chosen by Human Resources and Payroll.

Reimagining Faculty Roles and Rewards

(Approved by the Faculty Senate on April 12, 2023)

The University Standing Committee on Faculty Roles and Rewards is charged with ensuring that the processes and timelines proposed to achieve the five goals laid out in the Task Force on Reimagining Faculty Roles and Rewards final report of Fall 2022 are implemented. These goals include:

- Creating transparent workload guidelines that are equitable and inclusive of all faculty appointment types.
- Redesigning RPT guidelines that represent more inclusive frameworks for all faculty work.

- Developing a strategy for implementing continuous contracts for full-time instructional and clinical faculty.
- Clarifying the relationship between the annual review criteria and the RPT criteria.
- Creating a robust culture of faculty cohesiveness through career development for all.

The Committee shall report to the Faculty Senate on the progress toward these goals at least once each year and shall confer and collaborate with the appropriate committees and campus offices.

The committee shall recognize tenure as a major safeguard of academic freedom, the quality of education offered, and the continuity and stability of the institution.

Composition

- Chair or designee of the Faculty Matters Committee (co-chair);
- Vice Provost for Faculty Affairs and Development (co-chair);
- Chair or designee of the Faculty Handbook Committee;
- Three tenure-line I/R faculty, elected by the Faculty Senate;
- Three term I/R faculty, elected by the Faculty Senate;
- One Associate Dean of Faculty Affairs (or similar role, appointed by Provost);
- One representative from Research Council (appointed by Provost); and
- Two Local Academic Head/Department Chairs (one elected by the Faculty Senate, one appointed by Provost)

The committee shall be co-chaired by the member from the Faculty Matters Committee and the Vice Provost for Faculty Affairs and Development. The overall composition of the committee MUST include representation from at least 6 different schools and colleges.

Research Advisory Committee

(Motion approved by the Faculty Senate to create a new University Standing Committee entitled “Research Advisory Committee” – November 2, 2016)

Composition: The composition of the committee will include seven tenure-line faculty members (at least one of whom is a Faculty Senator) elected by the Faculty Senate. These faculty members should represent a minimum of five different colleges/schools, with at least two faculty members at the level of Professor and at least two faculty members at the level of Associate Professor. These seven elected members will serve staggered 3-year terms. Finally, the committee will include one ex-officio member, who is one of the two faculty representatives to the BOV Research committee.

Charge: To work in concert with the Office of Research and its subsidiary offices (e.g., Office of Research Integrity and Assurance, Office of Sponsored Programs), as well as the Associate Vice President for Entrepreneurship and Innovation, in shaping the research initiatives and policies of the university. The committee will serve in an advisory capacity to the Vice President of Research, the Associate Vice President for Entrepreneurship and Innovation, and associated offices. In this role, the committee will meet at least twice per semester with the Vice President of Research, and as needed with other individuals and offices. The committee will provide a report on its activities to the Faculty Senate at least annually.

Technology Policy Committee

Composition: Seven members, at least two of whom must be senators and one an ex-officio faculty member designated by the Provost. The composition should be such that most academic units are represented. One member of this committee shall also be a representative to the Policy Management Group.

Charge: The Committee will actively advise the Vice-President of Information Technology and other administrators in investments and in development and implementation of digital technologies that impact education and research practices of the University. The Committee will consult with the Chief Information Officer / Vice President – Information Technology about the faculty spending priorities and report to the Senate the current and projected ITS budgets at least once per academic year. The committee will request input from the faculty at large at least once per year about technology policy issues. These actions will ensure that the recommendations issued by the Committee reflect the position of the faculty concerning allocations to programs and/or individuals. The Committee will coordinate with ITS, the President's Office, the Provost's Office, and other university stakeholders, to create and maintain a cohesive data governance framework, as well as to collaboratively recommend university IT resource, intellectual property, and data compliance policies.

University Promotion, Tenure and Renewal Appeal Committee

(Approved by the Faculty Senate February 13, 2013 and by the Board of Visitors March 20, 2013; inclusion in the Faculty Handbook effective July 1, 2013. Revisions approved by the Faculty Senate February 1, 2017 and by the Board of Visitors May 11, 2017; inclusion in the Faculty Handbook effective July 1, 2017.)

2.8.2 University Promotion, Tenure and Renewal Appeal Committee

2.8.2.1 Committee Charge

Upon written appeal, the UPTRAC reviews the decision of the Provost or President not to recommend tenure, promotion, or renewal. The committee must publish and follow standard procedures for its conduct that are consistent with provisions in this section. The committee members (including the member chosen by the appellant) do not act as advocates for either the appellant or the university. The committee does not review the merits of the tenure, promotion, or renewal case itself.

2.8.2.2 Committee Composition

The UPTRAC shall be composed of three tenured faculty members and two alternate tenured faculty members, elected by the Faculty Senate to staggered terms; and two tenured administrators and one alternate tenured administrator, selected by the Provost to staggered terms. Committee terms are for two years. No two committee members may be from the same local academic unit or administrative unit. A member can serve a maximum of two consecutive 2-year terms, although subsequent non-consecutive service is permitted. Elected alternate members' terms formally begin during the first year that they participate in an appeal. For the purpose of service on the UPTRAC, a local academic unit administrator is considered an administrator.

The appellant will choose a tenured administrator to serve as the sixth member of the committee for the duration of the appellant's appeal. The administrator must be someone who does not have a conflict of interest, who did not participate at an earlier stage of the appellant's promotion, tenure, or renewal process, and who does not come from the same administrative unit as one of the Provost's appointees.

If any member of the UPTRAC has a conflict of interest, participated at an earlier stage of the appellant's promotion, tenure, or renewal process, or is otherwise unable to serve, such member shall not participate in the appeal, and an alternate will serve instead. In the event there are not sufficient faculty alternates to serve, the Faculty Senate shall elect additional alternate members to serve for the appeal. If the need for faculty alternates arises after the last Faculty Senate meeting of the academic year, the Faculty Senate Executive Committee will select the alternate(s). In the event there are not sufficient administrators to serve, the Provost shall select alternate members to serve for the appeal.

Writing Across the Curriculum Committee

(Charge revised April 26, 2023, composition revised September 17, 2023)

Charge: To advise and collaborate with administrative and academic units to support faculty who teach with writing across all academic disciplines. Specifically, the WAC Committee:

- A. Provides guidance related to writing courses and writing instruction for faculty, academic units, university leaders, other committees, and the full Senate;
- B. Works with the Mason Core Committee on the overall structure and outcomes of general education writing, including Writing-intensive courses;
- C. Collaborates with the Office of Institutional Effectiveness and Planning and other units on the assessment of writing and writing-enriched learning;
- D. Identifies the needs of Mason's student writers and faculty who teach with writing;
- E. Supports the intentional integration of writing and writing instruction into courses across the curriculum at Mason, including Writing-intensive courses;
- F. Acknowledges and celebrates the accomplishments of Mason faculty who teach with writing to recognize best practices specific to their discipline;
- G. Advocates for equitable practices and conditions that foster meaningful teaching and learning with writing across the curriculum.

Composition:

The committee will be composed of:

- The Director of Writing Across the Curriculum or a representative from that office.
- One faculty representative from each of the academic units offering undergraduate curricula, including one Faculty Senator; elected representatives will serve staggered three-year terms.
- Four additional faculty or student representatives, one from each of the following units: University Writing Center, Composition, INTO Mason, and Student Senate.
- Three non-voting ex-officio members from the following: University Libraries, Mason Core Committee, and Office of Institutional Effectiveness and Planning.

Elected representatives can serve a maximum of two consecutive three-year terms; subsequent non-consecutive terms are permitted.
